

Curriculum Vitae

Fulvio D'Alvia

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director of RetImpresa Confindustria

Fulvio D'Alvia is currently Director of RetImpresa Confindustria (since 2010)

RetImpresa is the Confederal Agency of Confindustria for Business Networks which promotes the culture of Business Network contract, a kind of aggregation aiming at improving companies' competitiveness, innovation and enterprises' business expansion in international markets.

Prior to this, he was Responsible for Development Project of Productive Sectors of Confindustria (2007) and Director Piccola Industria Confindustria and Director Federexport (2005).

His previous professional experience includes Manager at the Environment Unit of Confindustria (since 1990), dealing with the issues of environment prevention, land conservation and industrial safety. He has conducted representative and support activities to the Associations and companies, on technical and legal aspects of environmental legislation, coordinating working groups made up of experts from the association system.

He also worked at the Ministry of Transports, Directorate General of Civil Aviation, Construction Service (since 1985 till 1990), where he has been involved in the project, execution and testing of public works.