

Curriculum Vitae
CARLO LA ROTONDA

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

General Director of RetImpresa, Confindustria

Carlo La Rotonda is currently Director General of RetImpresa (since 2017), the Italian Agency of Confindustria for the promotion, representation and development of business networks with over 10 years of progressive experience.

His field of interest at Confindustria is the business expansion of small and medium enterprises aimed at improving their competitiveness and innovation through the aggregation. About it he carries on lobbying activities with Institutions and other public and private stakeholders.

Since July 2018 Mr. La Rotonda is the CEO of RetImpresa Servizi, the leader company for design and consulting with regard to aggregations, partnerships and business networks.

Prior to this, he worked as Manager in the Department of Regional Policy and Territorial Cohesion in Confindustria (2016-2017) and he has been DG of Confindustria Centro Sicilia, the Territorial Association for the entrepreneurs in the Central and South Area of Sicily (2013-2016). During this period, he was responsible for the management of a project, in the context of the “National Operational Programme on Legality 2007-13”, co-financed by the ERDF and the ESF with the purpose of guaranteeing security for the southern development areas in Italy.

His previous professional experience includes Legal Advisor in the field of company law and criminal law of economics and in 2007 Mr. La Rotonda became Senior Legal Officer in the Department of Legal Affairs in Confindustria.

His legal background has led him to be Member of different National Commissions and training seminars with focus on legal subjects, such as Intellectual property right, company and antitrust law.

He graduated in Law at the University of Studies of Naples “Federico II” (2003), receiving the License to practice Law in 2008.

He has also got a postgraduate certificate in “Corporate Crime Law” (2009) and one in “Corporate Legal Advisory” (2004) at LUISS Business School of Rome.

The educational and working experience of Mr. La Rotonda highlights his project-management skills, leadership qualities and the ability to manage relationships and resources.